

Rajput Room

All Day Dining

The very name resonates with the grandeur and the rich heritage of the erstwhile rulers of the desert kingdom. “Rajput”, meaning son of a king in Sanskrit are the dominant community of Rajputana. This historic region now almost concurring with the state of Rajasthan is also known as the land of kings, the home of Rajputs. The Rajputs are Hindus of the warrior caste. Traditionally, they put great value on etiquette and the military virtues and take great pride in their ancestry.

The historical journey of the Rajput Room originates from being a spacious open hall and courtyard, to a classic teak wood dance floor ballroom, to a contemporary all day dining restaurant with a collection of Midsummer Night's Dream Chandeliers from Fine Art Lamps, Florida. White carved marble arches, marble fireplaces, marble like doors with decorative gilt mouldings, resonate a rich blend of Rajput and Mughal architecture. The restaurant also showcases the rare portrait of Rajmata Gayatri Devi, painted by Gopal Deushkar in 1949 at the very same steps in the Rajput Room.

Rajput Room truly is a place to enjoy international specialties in a contemporary & elegance ambience, comprising a contemporary mix of fusion European, Oriental specialties and Indian curries, lending eclectic flavours and plated as the chef says in a “nouvelle” manner. It surely is a winner in today's modern culinary art.
