EVENTS AND OCCASIONS

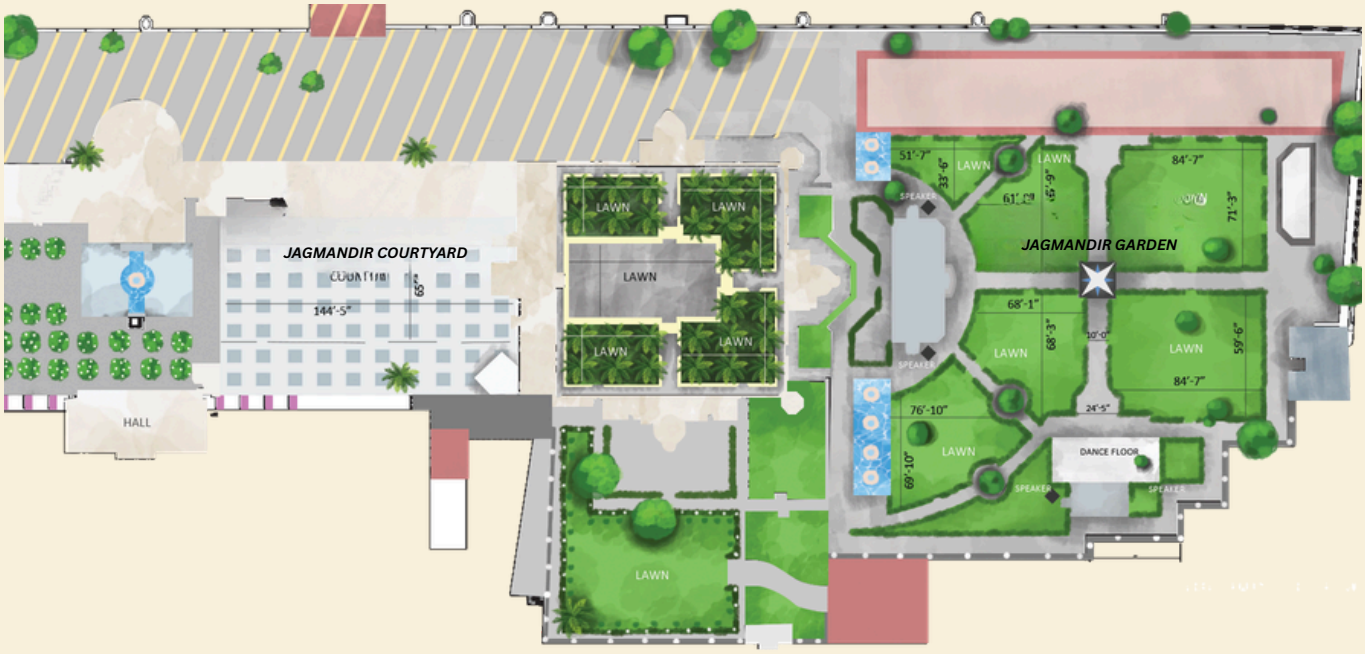

Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur, a masterpiece built in 1743 by Maharana Jagat Singh II, once the Mewar royals' summer retreat, now stands as a heritage haven. Overlooking Lake Pichola, it offers royal weddings, grand celebrations, elite meetings, and private gatherings. With venues like Jagmandir Island Palace, it blends timeless history, breathtaking views, and Taj's intuitive service culture.

JAGMANDIR ISLAND PALACE

Jagmandir Island Palace, fondly known as Swarg ki Vatika, is an idyllic 17th-century masterpiece intricately woven into the regal legacy of Mewar. Set amidst the serene waters of Lake Pichola, this enchanting destination offers exquisite courts and gardens, perfect for hosting distinguished occasions. With heritage venues like Jagmandir Garden, Jagmandir Courtyard, Spa Lawns, Kunwarpada Lawns, and an elegant Private Dining Room (8.2 mt. x 8.8 mt; 77 sq. mt.), every celebration is elevated with timeless grandeur and romance.
